

During 30 years of full time ministry, Ron has been a pulpit preacher, an educational director, a bus minister, a youth minister, a Bible teacher at a Christian high school, and an involvement minister, which is the work he is currently doing at the Germantown Church of Christ. Ron has served on the ministerial staff of churches in Alabama, Florida, Kentucky and Tennessee. He has also conducted gospel meetings, mission campaigns, and various seminars in the United States and in three foreign countries. Ron's seminar topics include Involvement, and Grief Recovery. Yes, he is of Scottish descent and this is his family tartan.